OVERVIEW

MISSION and VISION STATEMENTS

East Valley Athletes for Christ (EVAC) is an association of homeschool families dedicated to exemplifying Christ while participating in athletic competition. It is the goal of EVAC to encourage the hearts and minds of the participating homeschool youth in the love and likeness of Christ.

At EVAC, we strive to create confident and compassionate homeschool students through competitive interscholastic and homeschool athletic activities. We are a vibrant community of homeschool families from the East Valley of Arizona where the love of Christ infuses every interaction and endeavor.

GROUND RULES

CODE OF CONDUCT

Parents and fans

- Support by positive cheering
- Do not coach from the sidelines or stands
- Avoid public disagreement with coaching or refereeing
- Disparaging remarks toward other teams, their coaches or fans is unacceptable
- Post-game activities – 'hanging out' (representatives of EVAC)
- Social media posts should be positive, celebrations and recognition

Coaches and athletes

- Must graciously accept all calls by referees
- Process to protest unfair play by opponents (contact athletic director)
- Maintain an attitude of humility on and off the courts and fields
- All that is said and done For His Glory

CODE OF CONDUCT

Coaches and athletes and parents

- CAA focused on sportsmanship this year
- Treat the referees with respect
- Ejection from a game = 1 game suspension
- Must complete NFHS Sportsmanship online course – certificate to return
- 2nd ejection = suspension remainder of season
- No appeals

EVAC focused on our code of conduct, emphasis on bad language

- Meeting with coach, parents, sport coordinator, AD
- Warning → 1 game suspension → Board review, possible season suspension

CODE OF CONDUCT

We want to inform you of an important update regarding spectator behavior at our home basketball and volleyball games. Moving forward, spectators will no longer be permitted to step foot on the court pre-game or during the game. The court is strictly reserved for athletes, coaches, referees, EVAC Cheer team, and other necessary volunteers during these times. After the game, spectators may come onto the court to socialize but are not allowed to bring or use any balls in the gym.

Good evening, everyone! Due to the expected storms tomorrow afternoon and evening, I'm going to go ahead and cancel practice for tomorrow.

Our next practice will be Thursday evening at 6 PM.

Thank you!
